Measures (Healing Touch Series #2):

0 of 0 review helpful Good messages and a good read By K Hays The Healing Touch series does not have as much suspense as the Hideaway series but I still really enjoyed Necessary Measures Hannah Alexander s books are always entertaining reading with some good messages or lessons included I always seem to find something to apply to my life when reading the books A couple of the messages from this book are praying for Book 2 of the Healing Touch series Dr Grant Sheldon rsquo s move to Dogwood Springs is not turning out as he had planned The ills he thought he rsquo d left behind in the big city trouble this otherwise peaceful town too Lauren is drawn to Grant and his twins but she is concerned that her feelings for them conflict with her commitment to remain single Just when she feels she must step back circumstances thrust her even closer Drawn from real life experiences Ha From Library Journal In this sequel to Second Opinion the stress of the Emergency Room combined with the pressure of parenting two teenagers keep widowed Dr Grant Sheldon busy As his relationship with Lauren an ER nurse continues to develop he also tries t
