Hearts of Avon:

3 of 3 review helpful Absolutely wonderful By Sandi Carter I would give this more than five stars if I could because I loved this book that much It held my attention right from the start all the way to the end I live in North Carolina although I m in the mountains and not the outter banks where this story takes place I do have relatives there and well remember the destruction from Hurricane Irene That made this st In Avon a beach town along the Outer Banks of North Carolina Ben is falling fast for the beautiful and intelligent Caroline even as they both deal with her stalker ex boyfriend who has followed her south on vacation As Ben learns the depths of the other man s madness his and Caroline s relationship runs into another wall level 3 Hurricane Irene moving quickly toward the Outer Banks When the storm arrives all of their lives will be drastically changed Perhaps more than any writer we have suggested Scott Toney has a style that most closely resembles the style of Nicholas Sparks at his best Beginning with Toney s Hearts of Avon the reader will enjoy a story based in a deep and long literary t
