1 of 1 review helpful ok By Ashley It was ok Not as good as the others in the series 1 of 1 review helpful Entertaining and fun By Customer I like this writer and her stories are very enjoyable to read I like the characters in books and this is why I read them I don't go for overt drama or scary or frightening books that is not what I look for I like the set Jenna and Carly share a dry wit and sharp sleuthing skills that give these three stories universal appeal Wherever these small town Arkansas sisters go murder is sure to follow When they search for the murderer of a newspaper editor they could end up in the obit column In Branson for a break they find out that murder doesn't take vacations And when the Carly opens a diner murder is on the menu About the Author Award winning author and past president of American Christian Romance Writers CHRISTINE LYNXWILER has four novels published with Heartsong Presents and three novellas included in Barbour anthologies She and her husband Kevin and two daughter
